

winter TOOL BOX

1. Nikko Home Electronics R2-D2

DVD Projector $4013 The R2-D2 DVD projector is a home theatre system that projects two metres of digital material. Featuring built in speakers, CD and DVD stations, an iPod dock, a memory card slot, and an FM radio, the projector also has the ability to move and sound like R2-D2 with a Millennium Falcon shaped remote control and 11 different bells. Available from September.

2. Clearaudio Statement Turntable

$POA For the true audiophile, the Clearaudio Statement Turntable is priced in excess of $150,000, weighs around 350 kilograms, and plays and records at digital quality. The Clearaudio Statement Turntable also derives its rotational motivation from the same type of electric motor used to propel the Mars Rover.

3. Porsche Design Multi Hammer Drill

P-7911 $845 One for the wannabe handy man, the Multi Hammer Drill P-7911 is the result of a collaborative effort between Porsche Design and Metabo. The versatile multi hammer features five settings - hammer drilling, chiselling, drilling at low or high speed, and screw driving.

4. Gaggia Titanium Plus Espresso

Maker $1799 There is nothing better than waking up to the smell of freshly brewed coffee, even better when you don't have to leave the house to pick it up! The new, fully automated Gaggia Titanium Plus offers this simple pleasure, and due to its unique Espresso Plus System, you can now make your cuppa as strong or as creamy as you want.

5. Apple iPhone 8GB model $711

Due for imminent release in the US, the iPhone will launch the next generation of mobile phone technology. Apple's latest gadget includes a full QWERTY keyboard and a 2-megapixel camera. The 3.5-inch wide screen touch display is unique to the iPhone and will mean making phone calls, and accessing photos and music, even easier. The Apple iPhone will be released in Australia in 2008.

